

Shareholders' Meeting of December 14, 2021

Warning

December 3, 2021

The Company draws the attention of its shareholders to the fact that it may be decided to modify the conditions for participating in this Meeting. Shareholders are therefore invited to regularly consult this section which could be updated to specify the final terms of participation to this Meeting according to health and/or legal requirements.

Shareholders who choose to attend the Shareholders' Meeting will have to comply with the sanitary measures applicable at the time of the Meeting. Under current regulations, social distancing and wearing a mask upon entering the Seine Musicale enclosure and throughout the duration of the Meeting will be required.

Furthermore, given the resurgence of Covid-19 cases and in order to protect all participants, the Company regrets to inform you that the traditional shareholders cocktail at the end of the Shareholders' Meeting has been cancelled.
